∫ Psalm of Response....#134 – Come, Bless the LORD with One Accord

*“The LORD Now bless you from above,
From Zion in his boundless love;
Our God, who heav'n and earth did frame,
Blest be his great and holy name.”*

It must be understood spiritually, that, without God's will, nothing can befall believers; and even if death befall them, “their souls will be absolutely safe. Luke 21:18 is not simply spiritual assurance, but a graphic reconfiguration of the meaning of life: from the perspective of eternity, the loss of one's earthly life is no greater than the loss of a single hair.

James R. Edwards

Announcements

On the first and third Lord's Days of the month we observe the Lord's Supper. You are welcome to take the Lord's Supper if you have made a profession of faith, are a member of a Bible believing church, and have a clear conscience before the Lord. Our fellowship meal follows the service today. Please join us!

The session will be meeting this Tuesday at 4:30pm. Please let the session know if there are any matters that need attention.

Invitation cards on available on the welcome table. Please take several to put in your wallet, purse, glove box, etc. to invite folks to Wolf River.

Please be mindful of cleanliness as other churches use this facility. Please make sure restrooms are left in good condition, liquids are not thrown into trash receptacles without bags, and that the floor of the auditorium is clean.

“Orthodox” (literally, “straight thinking”) signifies our holding steadfastly to the inerrancy of Scripture, not in a thoughtless faith, but one that recognizes God’s Word as the foundation for consistent “straight thinking.” “Presbyterian” signifies that we believe the Scriptures to teach that local church elders along with a pastor, form a “session” to care for the spiritual welfare of the members of the Church, while not presuming to interfere with their freedom of conscience in matters of Christian liberty.
