Christianity is not to be enforced by bloodshed, and belief in it extorted by force. Happy would it have been for the Church if this sentence had been more frequently remembered! There are few countries in Christendom where the mistake has not been made of attempting to change men's religious opinions by compulsion, penalties, imprisonment, and death. And with what effect? The pages of history supply an answer. No wars have been so bloody as those which have arisen out of the collision of religious opinions

Announcements

There will be a brief worship service with the Lord's Supper this afternoon at 3pm at the home of Paul and Karen Tavares, as Karen has been unable to attend WRPC due to her health. We will need to gather outside the door, sing a couple hymns, hear a short Scripture lesson, and engage in prayer. All are welcome, and professing members in good standing are welcome to partake of the Lord's Supper again this afternoon.

Plan now for our annual Christmas Eve program at 7pm on December 24. We had many folks provide special music for in between Scripture reading last year and would love to see it again! Please see Pastor Mark if you can sign up for that. ALSO, the children of the church will be singing again – please see Jenette Arnold if you can participate in the children's choir.

Our Wednesday prayer meeting meets here at the church facility at 7pm. Currently, we are reviewing this week's catechism, participating in a brief study of Medieval church history, and engaging in a time of prayer.

Invitation cards on available on the welcome table. Please take several to put in your wallet, purse, glove box, etc. to invite folks to Wolf River.

“Orthodox” (literally, “straight thinking”) signifies our holding steadfastly to the inerrancy of Scripture, not in a thoughtless faith, but one that recognizes God's Word as the foundation for consistent “straight thinking.” “Presbyterian” signifies that we believe the Scriptures to teach that local church elders along with a pastor, form a “session” to care for the spiritual welfare of the members of the Church, while not presuming to interfere with their freedom of conscience in matters of Christian liberty.

Session
